Churches of Zlatoust

Nowadays people try to go to big cities. They forget that their “small motherland” is a wonderful place and there are many beautiful places. And there is no place like home.

We have decided to remind everybody about it.

That’s why we take part in the project.

Introduction

- Zlatoust is a small town at the foot of the Taganay mountain range.
- Its history began in 1754 when an iron works was founded here.
- We took to tell about churches because religion is a very important aspect of the cultural life. We hope that our project will help them understand how important it is.

The church of Simeon Pokrovsky

- The church of Simeon Pokrovsky is one many churches in Zlatoust.
- Inside the temple there is a space for prayers, holy water and a church shop, where you can buy different icons, books, crosses and candles.
- The church is in a charming place and it attracts your attention at once.

The temple of Seraphim Sarovsky

- The history of the church began on April 7th, 1997.
- There is a Sunday School in the church.
- There is a youth choirs in the church. If you want to enjoy some minutes of solemn calmness you should come here to listen to wonderful singing of the choirs.
- A beautiful sight opens from this hill to the town.
- The atmosphere in the Church will help you if you have roblems in life.
- You won't find a place more beautiful than temple of Seraphim Sarovsky.

The church of Zacamenka

- It's a small wooden church which was built about 1916.
- There is one dome in the church and tent of bells.
- It was closed in 1930 and returned to Christians in 1944.
- Sanctified as Troytskaya church in 1940.

Epilogue

- Christianity is a world religion. All our ancestors believed in God and followed traditions.
- The younger generation won't forget about it and we will keep to the traditions, too.
- We must save the heritage because it is fundamentals of our culture.
