Orda is situated in the south of Perm region.

It was founded in the fifteenth century.

The main sight of the village, the church, was founded in 1828. It was named after Ilya Prorok.

- The other sights are the houses of the Rudakovs, the richest people of the 19th century Orda. They were merchants. Their houses were made of the bricks, that had been produced on their own brick factory.

This is the building of the local museum and the Art School.

Originally it was the head of the settlement residence.
