О себе:

Мне шестнадцать лет. Я учусь на первом курсе в колледже.
Увлекаюсь рисованием, компьютерным дизайном и спортом.
Люблю читать книги.

My name is Denis. I was born in St. Petersburg. St. Petersburg is a second largest cities in the Russia. Before, it was a capital of Russia Empire. It was founded by Peter The Great in 1703 and was a fortress.

Hermitage is one of the greatest museums in the world. In 1757 were founded St. Petersburgs Academy of arts and the first russian national theatre. St. Petersburg has inspired great poets such as Pushkin, Gogol, Tolstoi and Dostoevski.

In St. Petersburg in june occurs time for white nights. I like this time. In this time, city become mysterious. St. Petersburg is a access to the sea. It is real window to Europe. Our city has title of naval power. In the city building big ships. They are hits their greatness.

I like my city and proud, that I live in this beautiful and great city.

St. Petersburg is the second largest city in Russia and one of the most beautiful cities in the world. It was founded in 1703 by Peter the Great as the "Window on Europe."

The city was built on the swampy land at the mouth of the River Neva. Prominent European and Russian architects worked here. The new capital grew rapidly in wealth and beauty.

Now St. Petersburg is an industrial, cultural and scientific centre. There are over 80 museums, more than 20 theatres, a lot of exhibitions, clubs, universities, colleges, schools and parks.

The most famous square in the city is the Palace Square with its magnificent ensemble. Here one can see the Winter Palace built by Rastrelli. Now the Winter Palace and four other buildings are occupied by the Hermitage, one of the oldest art museums in Russia. There one can see masterpieces of outstanding artists: Leonardo da Vinci, Raphael, Rembrandt, Velazquez and other unique works of art.

The streets and squares in St. Petersburg are very beautiful. Nevsky Prospect is the main street of the city, where there are amazing buildings, shops, hotels and the remarkable Kazan Cathedral (by Voronikhin) with a colonnade and monuments to M. Kutuzov and Barclay de Tolly.

Majestic palaces, cathedrals, churches and other buildings, built by famous architects, such as: palaces of Stroganov, Menshikov, Anichkov, and St. Isaac's Cathedral, erected by Montferrand, decorate St. Petersburg.

The city is often called the Venice of the North because there are 65 rivers and canals with artistically decorated cast iron bridges.

St. Petersburg inspired many of our great poets, writers, painters, sculptors, composers and actors. Much of the life and work of Pushkin, Dostoevsky, Tchaikovsky, Repin and Kramskoi was connected with the city.

Hi,

My name is Veizdzhynaite Ksenia. I am a first-year student of the Polytechnical College of Municipal Economy. I am going to be a specialist in the field of the Technical Regulation and Quality Management.

My home town is Saint-Petersburg. I like it very much.

Saint-Petersburg was founded by Peter I in 1703. For over than 200 years it was the capital of Russia.

Nowadays Saint-Petersburg is a cultural centre of Russia. It is full of outstanding architectural monuments and beautiful places: the Hermitage, the Admiralty, the Place Square, St. Isaac's Cathedral, the Summer Gardens and the wonderful Neva with its embankments.

However, I would like to pay attention to less known but very unusual and funny monuments, which are situated in my city.

On the embankment of the Fontanka river a small-just 11 sm, monument which is called 'Chizik-Pizik' is located. Since 1994 when it was set, it has been stolen 7 times! But now, finally, it stands on its place and people throw coins to it: 'The legend says that if your coin reaches the target, your dream will come true'. Chizik-Pizik is very popular among both locals and tourists.

There are several other monuments in Saint-Petersburg where you can make a wish by throwing a coin. One of them is 'the Hare'.

Another legend says that it jumped in Peter's I boot and saved it from the flood. And in 2003 next to Ioann's bridge the monument to this Hare-hero was set. So, if you walk a close to St. Peter and Paul's Fortress you should try to 'hit the Hare'.

Two 'Cute Cats' are situated on Malaya Sadovaya Street-right in the center of Saint-Petersburg. On the 'structural benches' of two buildings, which stand in front of each other you can find the Cat Vasilisa and the Cat Elisey. These animals saved the city after the war when it was full of rats. If your coin lands close to the cat-you will 'turn your luck around'.

All these facts prove the fact that Saint-Petersburg is not only the most wonderful, but the most amazing city in the world. And I am lucky to be its citizen.
